Programme:

Quartier van Peellandt (Helmond) - First week:

Theme: Meeting the south of Holland.

In your first week you will visit the province of North-Brabant in the southern part of Holland. This part of Holland is well-known for the amusement park the Efteling, soccer club PSV and the Philips company in Eindhoven, Bavaria beer, the capital Den Bosch and carnival, but most of all for its hospitality.

You will explore the province by car, by boat or in the typical Dutch way: by bike. You will not only visit small villages in the countryside but also bigger cities.

Your host families live in the towns of Helmond, Lieshout, Deurne, Nuenen. In their homes you will experience the Dutch habits and traditions.

You will enjoy a week full of culture, nature, sports and fun. You will meet a lot of new friends from all over the world. Friends you will be able to enjoy for one more week when you move on to the east of Holland in the second week.
