Rotary - Lead to Peace

The 1st International Rotary Youth and Young Adults Peace Conference

"Rotary - Lead to Peace"

15th -20th March 2013, Israel

If you are between the ages of 17-25, and are passionate about enhancing peace by promoting direct multi-cultural and multi-faith dialogue among youngsters from around the globe- this conference is for you!

About the Conference:

- ✓ Dates & Location: The six day conference will take place between the 15th-20th of March 2013 and will host 200 young people from around the world at the "Ha'kefar Ha'Yarok", a picturesque youth village on the outskirts of Tel-Aviv. <http://www.kfaryarok.org.il>
- ✓ The conference will include:
  - ❖ Lectures, workshops and master classes in arts, music and ecology based on a multicultural and multi-faith perspective.
  - ❖ Discussions and debates on shared values in different cultures and faiths.
  - ❖ A 'Peace Through Service' project to be developed during the conference and subsequently implemented globally among the different communities of the participants.
  - ❖ Excursions to various ethnic and religious communities in Israel and day trips around Israel.
- ✓ Costs: Participation fees of €100 to be paid by participant or participant's sponsoring organization. The fees will cover meals, sleeping accommodation and the various lectures, workshops and day trips around Israel.
- ✓ Please note: This sum does not include flight costs to Israel and medical insurance (following Rotary's code of policies), which are to be covered by participants.
- ✓ Participants will arrive and leave from Ben-Gurion International Airport.
- ✓ All proceedings and activities will be held in English.

To register to the conference please fill in the application form below and submit it to the Youth Exchange Program Officer at your local Rotary club by December 15th, 2012. Upon approval the registration forms will be sent by the Youth Exchange Officer to: rotarypeace2013@gmail.com
