

ROTARY DISTRICT 1850
New Generations

Invitation
International Summer Camp of District 1850

Man and the Sea

Hosting Club: Rotary Club Varel-Friesland

Discover
Germany, the German North Sea Coast, the Sea.
Discover
the Wadden Sea World Natural Heritage Site
Discover
Sea & Nature, Sea & Food, Sea & Economy, Sea & Security

You will stay for ten days in the youth hotel "Strandhus" immediately at the Jade Bight / the North Sea.

The 9 Rotary Clubs of this region have prepared a spectacular program at sea, on islands, at the beach and ashore.

The 9 Clubs: RC Jever-Jeverland, RC Oldenburg, RC Oldenburg-Ammerland, RC Oldenburg-Graf Anton Günther, RC Oldenburg-Schloss, RC Varel-Friesland,
RC Westerstede, RC Wilhelmshaven, RC Wilhelmshaven-Friesland

The program includes a day's visit of the old and famous Hanseatic city of Bremen.

Townhall Bremen, Copyright WFB Bremen

Details:

Period	Thursday 17 July to Sunday 27 July 2014
Hosting Rotary-Club	RC Varel-Friesland
Participants	Young adults from EEMA countries; age 18 to 23
Accommodation	10 nights at "Strandhus" Varel-Dangast; 1 day with Rotarian families
Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none">* Where are you?* Games, Sports and Eager* Rotary Day – Family Day* The German Day* Sea and Nature* Relaxation* The Sea and I* The Sea and Economy* Farewell Event

Clothing	Light casual clothes, swimsuit, sweater, hiking shoes, raincoat
Language	Working knowledge of English
Conditions	You must be able to swim and to bike
Arrival & Departure	By plane: Airport Bremen (BRE) By train: train station Oldenburg Your hosts will pick you up at the airport or train station
Cost and insurance	There is a registration fee of 100 Euro to be paid after acceptance and before 1 June 2014. The participants have to buy their tickets to and from Bremen and bring pocket money for personal expenses. Insurance against accident, illness & third party liability for all participants will be bought by the hosts.

3 of the 7 East-Frisian-Islands and the Wadden Sea World Natural Heritage Site