

District 1870

Germany

Youth camp 2014

District 1870, Germany

INVITATION

to an International Youth Camp of R.I. District 1870 in Xanten, Germany in August 2014

European Youth - A Bridge to the Future

Date:	Saturday, 02 August to Saturday, 16 August 2014
Host District and Clubs:	R.I. District 1870 located in the state of North-Rhine Westphalia (NRW) Rotary Club of Geldern and neighbouring RCs
Aims:	Promote and experience international understanding and friendship between young adults from various European countries and neighbouring regions. Provide an insight in the thinking of young adults and their culture.
Participants:	20 young adults, aged 18 -22 years invited from EEMA and other countries. From each country 1-2 young adults.
Language:	Participants must have a good working knowledge of English
Programme:	The programme will cover a range of activities including culture, sightseeing, discussions, sports (also cross border bicycle tours).
Lodging:	„Youth hostel Xanten“ in Xanten
Costs:	The travel expenses to and from Xanten must be covered by the participants. Each participant has to pay an individual fee of 100,- € They should bring adequate pocket money with them.
Arrival at/Departure from:	Duesseldorf Airport or Central Station Duisburg on 2 Aug (arrival), 16 Aug 2014 (departure); Pickup at the Airport or Central station.
Insurance:	The participants must be insured against illness, accident and Liability Insurance.
Registration:	The YEOs of the invited countries are asked to send their applications on international standard forms (Short Term Program) before 15 March 2014 to the point of contact:
Apply to:	Rotary Club Geldern c/o Past President Dr. Peter Schaap Gelderner Str. 16 47638 Straelen/Germany E-Mail: Dr.Schaap-Straelen@t-online.de ; Fax: + 49 2834 76 76
Information:	All participants will receive acceptance information (including travel advice) upon registration, and further details will arrive not later than 31 May 2014. Acceptance on a “first come, first served” basis.